DEPARTMENT OF CHAPLAINCY AND CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION -Partners in Healing

Ohio State University Medical Center's Department of Chaplaincy and Clinical Pastoral Education assists patients, families and Medical Center staff in meeting spiritual and emotional needs.

Chaplains serve as members of the healthcare team, providing supportive spiritual care. Our professional chaplains are theologically and clinically trained. Their work reflects:

- Sensitivity to multicultural and multifaith realities
- Respect for patients' spiritual or religious preferences
- Understanding of the impact of illness on Individuals and their caregivers
- Accountability as part of the professional patient care team

To contact a-chaplain, call the office at (614) 293-8791. Chaplains are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. If you need assistance contacting your own pastor or faith representative, please provide us with the following information:

- Your name and room number
- The name of your pastor or faith representative, the name of your church or place of worship, and a telephone number, if known
